Aginjibagwesi Owadiswan Ojibwe Language Camp Registration is Now Open!

We are excited to announce that registration for Aginjibagwesi Owadiswan Ojibwe Language Camp to be held July 21-23, is now available through the Whova app!

Join us as we come together to learn, speak, and celebrate Ojibwemowin through language, culture, community, and hands-on activities. Whether you are a fluent speaker, a learner, an educator, a parent, or someone looking to strengthen your connection to the language, we welcome you to be part of this special gathering.

- Register today through Whova
- Connect with fellow language learners and keepers
- Receive updates, announcements, and event information directly through the app

More details, session information, presenters, and the full agenda will be shared soon.

Together, we will continue the important work of carrying our language forward.

LCO Health Center is Seeking New Logo Design

Logo design submission call

We are inviting community members to help us create a new logo that reflects who we are and the people we serve.

Design Guidelines
Your logo should:

- Be inspired by Ojibwe floral art traditions.
- Incorporate imagery or symbolism that represents health, healing, wellness, or compassionate care.
- Be an original, hand-created design.

Submission Requirements

- Include your name and contact information with your submission.
- AI-generated artwork will not be accepted.
- Designs may be hand drawn or digitally created (without the use of AI).

Selection Process

Submitted designs will be reviewed, and one design will be selected as our clinic's new logo. The selected design may be refined or adapted for branding and marketing purposes. The selected artist will be required to sign an agreement transferring all rights to the Health Center.

The chosen artist will receive a $1,000 prize.

Submission Deadline: October 31, 2026

Submit Designs to:
Kaylee Trepanier
