2nd Annual Ojibwe Language Camp strengthens language, culture and community connection

By J. Cadotte
August 7, 2026

The second annual Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe Language Camp drew more than 200 participants daily July 21-23, 2026, for immersive, hands-on learning experiences centered on Ojibwe language, culture and community.

The camp is dedicated to the revitalization and preservation of the Ojibwe language and culture by creating a welcoming environment where participants of all ages can connect to the language, strengthen their cultural identity and build community through shared learning experiences.
